Radio Public Service Campaign

:60, :30

Dear Public Service Director,

If there's anything ChildFund has learned in its decades of work with children — currently in 24 countries throughout Asia, Africa and the Americas — it's this: We need each other.

We also know that this is a message the world could really use right now.

"We Need Each Other," a new, poignant radio PSA campaign from ChildFund, invites audiences to experience the incredible power of human connection — the same power that fuels ChildFund's work to connect children living in poverty with what they need to grow up healthy, educated and safe.

In adding these radio PSAs into your on-air rotation, you'll join us in helping transform the world into a place where all children are free to achieve their potential. (Because we need them, too.) The 60- and 30- second spots can air immediately and have no expiration date.

Thank you in advance for playing this uplifting campaign. We hope it makes you — and your audiences — smile.

Sincerely,
